

Complete the sentences with the missing modal verbs:

1. How ( ) you talk to me in this manner. I am twice older than you!
a) could      b) should      c) dare      d) need
2. She ( ) help you with home tasks if you asked.
a) must      b) can      c) will      d) would
3. ( ) you like to order some food? I am in a mood for pizza!
a) could      b) would      c) can      d) will
4. Angela ( ) go to the cinema with us because she had to look after her sister.
a) couldn't      b) shouldn't      c) won't      d) can't
5. Who is this guy? - Not quite sure. It ( ) be Peter.
a) will      b) should      c) must      d) would
6. You ( ) use my phone to call your mother. She must be missing you.
a) can      b) would      c) won't      d) need 7. Kyle ( ) wear a uniform at work. This is a rule of the company.
a) can      b) would      c) has to      d) couldn't
8. ( ) I come in? - Excuse me, but you have to wait for a couple of minutes.
a) will      b) may      c) must      d) might
9. I ( ) quit smoking soon because cigarettes are getting more expensive.
a) would      b) should      c) could      d) need
10. You ( ) drive the car after drinking alcohol.
a) ought to      b) have to      c) couldn't      d) mustn't

Put the sentences into negative and interrogative forms:

1. His sister will bring a lot of souvenirs from France.

His sister won't bring a lot of souvenirs from France. Will his sister bring a lot of souvenirs from France?

---

2. I can use a dictionary during the exam.

I can't use a dictionary during the exam. Can I use a dictionary during the exam?

---

3. Mario would like to try out these new running shoes.

Mario wouldn't like to try out these new running shoes. Would Mario like to try out these new running shoes?

---

4. She may come to the event wearing a short dress.

She may not come to the event wearing a short dress. May she come to the event wearing a short dress?

---

5. Alex ought to listen to his trainer to succeed in sports.

Alex ought not to listen to his trainer to succeed in sports. Ought Alex to listen to his trainer to succeed in sports?

---

6. Your brother can lend me his car for a weekend trip.

Your brother can't lend me his car for a weekend trip. Can your brother lend me his car for a weekend trip?

---

7. Anthony should eat less if he wants to get fit.

Anthony shouldn't eat less if he wants to get fit. Should Anthony eat less if he wants to get fit?

---

8. I might forget to walk out my dog in the morning.

I might not forget to walk out my dog in the morning. Might I forget to walk out my dog in the morning?

---

9. Students must come to class on time.

Students mustn't come to class on time. Must students come to class on time?

---

10. You will stay in Australia for another year.

You won't stay in Australia for another year. Will you stay in Australia for another year?

---

11. Andrew could become a popular singer in his teenage years.

Andrew couldn't become a popular singer in his teenage years. Could Anthony become a popular singer in his teenage years?

---

12. Amy would introduce me to her parents.

Amy wouldn't introduce me to her parents. Would Amy introduce me to her parents?

---

Choose the appropriate modal verbs from the box below to complete the dialogue:

1. Must 2. Can't 3. Have to 4. Should 5. Might 6. Will 7. Wouldn't 8. Could 9. May 10. Can

11. Shouldn't 12. Would 13. Won't 14. Mustn't 15. Ought to

Hello, Jason. You (may) have forgotten to call me today. Do you remember about our plans for the weekends? - Sorry, brother! I (can't) join you at this time. I have an urgent task from my boss so I (ought to) travel to Germany tomorrow. I (<sup>have to</sup>4) be getting ready now if I want to leave on time! - Wow!

I guess you (could) not expect that! Happy for you anyway. When (will) you come back? - I don't know yet. I ( wouldn't ) like to stay too long. The weather is not good there now. - ( Can ) you bring me something from Germany? - Sure! But I ( might ) forget! ( Shouldn't ) you write me a message what you want exactly?

- No problem. But you ( mustn't ) worry. This is just a Kinder Egg I ( would ) like to present to my daughter for Christmas. - I think I know where I can find it. Your daughter ( won't ) be disappointed! ( Will ) she be finishing middle school this year? - Exactly. I think she ( must ) proceed studying.