

Open the brackets and put the nouns in plural by adding -s, -es to the end of each:

1. I have taken five ^{pictures} (picture) of the house.
2. He gave me three welcoming ^{kisses} (kiss).
3. Most people know one another in small ^{towns} (town).
4. I have shown her a few ^{dresses} (dress) to choose from.
5. Two ^{foxes} (fox) have come out of the forest.
6. ^{Busses} (Bus) are slower than ^{planes} (plane).
7. You should read some ^{books} (book) about this subject.
8. There are many ^{trees} (tree) growing in my backyard.
9. Peter doesn't like ^{dogs} (dog), he prefers ^{cats} (cat) instead.
10. She doesn't like to wash the ^{dishes} (dish) after dinner.

Open the brackets and put the nouns in plural form by adding -s, or changing the ending -y for -ies if required:

1. I presented many (toy)^{toys} to my younger brother.
2. There are two (way)^{ways} how we can solve this problem.
3. (Butterfly)^{Butterflies} are beautiful and do not bite.
4. Mario has lived in four different (city)^{cities} over the last couple of years.
5. We don't eat (cherry)^{cherries} because we have an allergy.
6. A group of pretty (lady)^{ladies} entered the class.
7. Our (family)^{families} don't go on vacation together anymore.
8. There are two famous (library)^{libraries} in my city.
9. It takes many (day)^{days} to recover from this disease.
10. My grandfather told me many (story)^{stories} about his military service.

Transform the nouns into plural form to complete the word combinations:

1. One knee - two knees .
2. My life - our lives .
3. One leaf - many leaves .
4. One tomato - one kilo of tomatoes .
5. One foot - two feet .
6. One tooth - a mouth full of teeth .
7. One man - a crowd of men .
8. One mouse - a family of mice .
9. One child - a lot of children .
10. One sheep - a flock of sheep .

